

Weezer, The End Of The Game

hey Suzy, where you been today_ I am looking for you every way no sign of you when I wake up I am on an Island whit no sun I feel like I have known you my whole life you got my crying like when Aslan died now you're gone

the melody can't find you
I am incomplete without you I guess we've reached the end of the game hit me!

I know that you would crank this song air-guitaring whit you headphones on we dig the same type of melofdies the ones to get you next to me I was mick and you were Marianne you would harmonize when I felt bad but now you're gone

the melody can't find you
I am incomplete without you
hit me!

Am I your go-to or am I uncool whit all of these extremes that I go to all I want is to be wanted by you /2x

the melody can't find you
I am incomplete without you
I guess we've reached the end of the game
hit me!
