

Weezer, The Fall

(feat. Good Charlotte)

it's so cold outside just the lonely leave their homes a gust of wind came by and filtered my mind don't have to turn the heat on thoughts of you keep me warm pictures of you by the fireplace, in the fireplace cause your so cold this fall - i fall for you, now im fallin apart

[Chorus]

i fell for you - i fell for you- i fell for you now im falling apart -im fallin apart - im falling apart - im falling apart

this place reflects my life and all around leaves fall like hearts to the ground fragile and gentle just like you or maybe that was me but just like the leaves - smiles change but i never do and when that smile leaves - the fall begins as i do too

[Chorus]

this fall we had to part but i couldnt leave so if you think of us next fall just send away for me wait for me when your gone come next fall i still be holding on if you come around what should i do
why even stay here
when all i have is you
i want you to go
but i need you to stay one other year is just too far away
i want you to go
i want you to know i want you to hold
