

Weezer, Thought I Knew

Sorry about my past life
Sorry but we just missed
Sorry it had to end up like this

Sorry if I caused you pain
Sorry I forgot your name
Sorry but you left me out in the rain

Thought I knew you better then
Thought I knew your intentions
Thought I knew, but I didnt have a clue
Not a single damn thing was true

Sorry if I caused you harm
Sorry Im no good luck charm
Sorry you didnt end up in my arms

Thought I knew you better than
Thought I knew your intentions
Thought I knew, but I didnt have a clue
Not a single damn thing was true

Now that I, worlds gone down
Weve traded away, blew out the spark
And now were left with broken hearts
Tryin to find a new place to start

Thought I knew you better then
Thought I knew your intentions
Thought I knew, but I didnt have a clue
Not a single damn thing

I knew you better then
Thought I knew your intentions
Thought I knew, but I didnt have a clue
Not a single damn thing was true, was true
