

Wellwater Conspiracy, I Got Nightmares

I got nightmares all the time
'Bout a girl who ain't too fine
Being in love with that girl is worse
Knocks me on my head at first

Then she splits my mind in two
Kiss my lips and beats me too
My head does hurt, my eyes do ring
Like a shingle wishes branch

I feel the weight of thousand stone
With this stick she breaks my bones

She lifts me up so very high
She is a drug I don't deny
She'll let me go right to the floor
Then I wake up with a shock for her
