

Wet Wet Wet, All I Want

And if you open up and let me in
Let me in

I feel my world is changing
It seems so far away
It's my last chance to make it turn out right
And if our worlds still lie together, love will be our satellite
That takes us round like shooting stars

I know I'll make you mine
By giving all my love to you
I hope you'll understand
What I have to give
(What I have to give)
What I have to give

All I want is someone to rely on
All I want is a love that's true
All I wanna do is open up to you

I feel my worlds on fire
I can see the sun come up
I wanna spread my wings and fly

I know I'll make you mine
By giving all my love to you
I hope you'll understand
What I have to give
(What I have to give)
What I have to give

All I want is someone to rely on
All I want is a love that's true
All I wanna do is spend a little time with you

Underneath the starry sky
I sit alone and wonder why
Where did it all go wrong
I know I should move on
Is it just a dream (Is it just a dream)
Or am I just a dreamer

Is it just a dream
(Is it just a dream)
(Is it just a dream)
Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah

All I want is someone to rely on
All I want is a love that's true
All I wanna do is spend some time with you yeah

And if you open up and let me in,
I will begin to live again
Just like the old moon in the sky
