

Wet Wet Wet, I don't want to know

If this is paradise
And I dont recognise
That subtle look thats in your eyes
And in the distance now
I hear your whispers loud
And see my dreams go fading by and by
Um, thing about the girls they are doing fine
Shes all alone now thats a crime
Guess what, shes gonna have a good time
First chance, shes in the right frame of mind
Shes the best thing I never had, had
And I dont wanna know
And I dont wanna know
I dont wanna go
And I dont wanna go
All I want is home tonight
Baby, baby, babe
All I want is home tonight
Shell be moved, be moved
A love so precious now,
Lights me up inside
My darkest night could never hide
Elegant and divine
She wears a diamond smile
The girls perfection guaranteed
Um, talking to the boys with the company line
And sitting all alone and your outta time, outta time
Guess what, she's gonna have a good time
First chance, shes in the right frame of mind
Shes the best thing I never had, had
And I dont wanna know
And I dont wanna know
I dont wanna go
And I dont wanna go
All I want is home tonight
Baby, baby, babe
All I want is home tonight
And all I want is home
Tonight
And I dont wanna know
I dont wanna go
I dont wanna know, ooooh
