

Whatever It Takes, A Fist Full Of Revolution

I've seen a rising statue
Next to a crumbling building
And a city scapes call to arms--yeah, yeah

So we've got our fists out--rising up
To show our numbers--you're falling down
Show our numbers in this fight--our fight, we won't back down

(So) I warn, I warn you...

One fist full of revolution
And it's reaching for a brick
And you are the target...

One fist full of revolution--rising up
And it's reaching for a brick--you're falling down
And you are the target--we won't back down, won't give up
