

White Kaps, 'Bout Time

It's about time for me to get out of danger.
Well, I don't love you, no no, you've become a stranger.
You've just got to have your own way.
Won't play, I'm gonna go.
It's about time for me to get out your life.
Well, I don't love you, and you will never be my wife.
You've just got to have your own way.
Won't play, I'm gonna go.
It's about time for me to get out your town.
Well, I'm tired of seeing your stupid face with that frown.
You've just got to have your own way.
If you don't want me here, I'll disappear.
I'm gone.
