

White Kaps, Lucky Strike

one day i was walkin' carefree down the street i was feelin' pretty sweaty thats sayin' nothin' for my feet then from out of nowhere or so i thought i was smashed against the sidewalk and i knew it hurt a lot oohs and aaahs

i knew it hurt a lot but i didn't know what it was next thing i'm knocked out and it was because some guy i didn't know up on the thirty somethin' floor he was havin' a bad day couldn't stand it anymore

[chorus]

now it seems i broke his fall ended up he broke my back tell me was this guy drinkin' tell me was he smokin' crack now thats a sorry son of a bitch couldn't do it if he tried but he's the one that lived and i'm the one that died hear he's make silly sounds with his finger and his lips some looney landed on me they spread my ashes off a ship

cuz there was nothin' left to steal every since i kissed the sidewalk sure he never missed a meal

[chorus]
