

Whitesnake, Don't break my heart again

Im gonna take it to the limit of my love,
Before I turn and walk away.
Ive had enough of holding on
The promises of yesterday.
Every day of my life, it seems,
Troubles knocking at my door,
Its hard to try and satisfy
When you dont know what youre fighting for.
Time and again I sing your song,
But, Ive been runnin on empty far too long.
Ive had enough holdin on to the past,
Make no mistake, it could be your last.
Dont break my heart again, like you did before.
Dont break my heart again, I couldnt take anymore.
I never hide the feeling inside,
And though Im standing my back to the wall,
I know that even in a summer love
A little bit of rain must fall.
But, every road I take I know
Where its gonna lead me to,
Because Ive travelled every highway
And they all keep coming back to you.
Time and again I sing your song,
But, Ive been runnin on empty far too long.
Ive had enough holdin on to the past,
Make no mistake, it could be your last.
Dont break my heart again, like you did before.
Dont break my heart again, I couldnt take anymore.
Dont break my heart.
(Solo)
Dont break my heart again, like you did before.
Dont break my heart again, I couldnt take anymore...
