

Whitesnake, Drifter

I was born a rambling man
An I never got the chance
To settle down an get a hold on love
Takin air an movin around
Is all I can see that Im doin
An it is bringin me down
Drivin on a highway going nowhere
Desolation destination
Guess Ill find it somewhere
I know if theres trouble
I aint takin the blame
Thats why I keep movin
So nobody knows my name
Born a loser
Im beyond the law
Women behind me
Never can find me
They can never get together
What Ive been here for
Cos Im a drifter
Rollin on
Aint wastin my time no more
