

Whitmore, I Am Strong

You know my name
And it feels so good
Then you tell me that it's over
Well you are the one
And everyone knows
Then you tell me it's all over

Every time I see your face
You know just where I'm at
And you know that I'm not strong

You run away
And everyone says
They say that I deserve this
So I fuck me up
Like I always say
'Cause I know that I deserve this

Every time I see your face
You know just where I'm at
And you know that I'm not strong
Every time I look into your eyes
You know I'm lying
And you know that I'm not strong
