

Why Store, Fade Away

Used to want loving
I used to want your love
Used to want loving
Well, I wanted your love
With all of my dreams I can surely say
Gonna take my life and simply fade away
Used to want fame
I used to want it all
Used to want fame
Well, I wanted it all
With all of my dreams I can surely say
Gonna take this simple life and simply fade away
With all your love and your life
You can surely make your dreams come alive
To all your wants, to all your needs
You can simply say goodbye, bye, bye
You still want loving
You still want my love
With all of my dreams I can surely say
Gonna take my life and simply fade away
I'm out the door
I'm already gone
