

Wide Mouth Mason, Eleven

I don't really want do what I want to do every time I look at you
But I'll probably do it anyway
I knew better when I met you than to let you get your hooks in me
But you're hooking anyhow

Yes. No. Stop. Go.
I won't show unless you say so

Tomorrow's gonna take what it's owed by you
So tonight better get what you can
Nothing comes easily nothing comes free
So you'd better not miss this chance

I don't really want to do what I said I'd do
But I'm gonna follow through so I feel like I'm alive
I want to feel like I'm alive
