

Wilburn Brothers, Signs Are Everywhere

I've seen and heard enough to know we're through
It's there in everything you say and do
I'm afraid the end for us is almost here
I'm losing you the signs are everywhere

The signs are everywhere I'm losing you
They're tearing at my heart and breaking it in two
You won't let me touch you you don't want me near
I'm losing you the signs are everywhere
(steel)
The signs are everywhere...
