

Wilburn Brothers, You'll Never Get A Better Chan

(Ernest Tubb)

If you've got to hurt someone who really loves you

And you're looking for a way that just can't miss

If you've got to make a fool of one who needs you

Then you'll never get a better chance than this

For I love you so much it would just kill me to find I'm just a number on your list

If your mind's made up to make somebody suffer

Then you'll never get a better chance than this

(steel)

If you can't be happy till somebody's cryin'

All you've got to do is kiss that goodbye kiss

And here I am you might as well start tryin'

Cause you'll never get a better chance than this

For I love you so much...
