

Wild Animal Party, Bloodsucker (live)

Keep the door locked up tight.
Do you think we can win this fight?
I carved all my crosses
And tended your bite.
I hope we can last through the night.

Hold me tightly until you depart.
As the last blood drains from your heart.
I'll drive deep the stake and split you apart
To keep you from the hardest part.

You can't kill me, you can't steal me.
You can't have my life.
Bloodsucker, bloodsucker.

Kick open the door and the battle begins.
Break all the windows to let the light in.
I'll stand to you fearless as the light melts your skin.
Good versus evil, the light always wins.
