

William Fitzsimmons, Funeral Dress

On a rack in a store for a discount price
But the colors been changed to a black from white Though the difference will probly be lost on me
Anyways

And dont worry if laughter is on your lips Cause you wouldnt be you if you changed for this
And I wont measure love from the tears that drip From your face

i can't wait for you
i can't wait for you

i suppose i should hope that it turns out fine
But I hope that some sadness does cross your mind
And youll look for me when you have crossed that line Come one day

i can't wait for you
i can't wait for you
i can't wait for you
