Willie Nelson, Caribbean

Have you ever been down to Haiti when the summer sun was sinkin' low There's nothing but romance just everwhere you glance And the native hearts are all aglow

But when the Cuban Queen comes upon the scene They all stare like a statue out of stone When they realize what's before their eyes the other girls are left all alone

Down in the Caribbean it's not a dream you're seein' When you get a glimpse of the lady with the charm And from miles away you can see her sway To the beat of the Cuban Conga line that forms

Up in a tree so high way up in the sky sits a wide eyed monkey on a limb He wonders why the people go to so much trouble just to try to be like him

He doesn't understand that it's a lady's hand that makes a heart feel so sublime And before too long he starts singing the song and then he gets in the Conga line

(ac.guitars)

Columbus searched for spices but he missed the nicest part of the Caribbean He didn't see the charms and the open arms it was the gold that he was seein'

But I'm glad he missed the sweetest thing I've kissed cause we're on our honeymoon I'm so sorry Chris to talk about you like this but you were five hundred years too soon

Down in the Caribbean...
