

Willie Nelson, Some Other Time

Some other time, I'll forget you.
And start my life anew.
But not just now, I won't forget you,
'Cos I've spent too much time loving you.

I know I could forget you if I wanted to.
But there's still ten thousand dreams that I must dream of you.

Some other time, I'll stop rememberin',
The love that came my way.
Then I'll forget I ever loved you.
Some other time, but not today.

I know I could forget you if I wanted to.
But there's still ten thousand dreams that I must dream of you.

Some other time, I'll stop rememberin',
The love that came my way.
Then I'll forget I ever loved you.
Some other time, but not today.
