Willie Nelson, Somebody Pick Up My Pieces

Somebody pick up my pieces I'm scattered everywhere And put me back together And put me way over there Take me out of contention I surrender my crown So somebody pick up my pieces It's just me comin' down

Well, I sure thought I had her Lord, I know she had me What I thought was heaven Is just falling debris Well, I may not be crazy But I got one hell of a start Somebody pick up my pieces I think I'm fallin' apart

Don't follow my footsteps Step over my trail The road is too narrow And your footing could fail And the fall to the bottom Could tear you apart And they'll be pickin' up pieces Of you and your heart Don't follow my footsteps Step over my trail The road is too narrow And your footing could fail And the fall to the bottom Could tear you apart And they'll be pickin' up pieces Of you and your heart And they'll be pickin' up pieces Of you and your heart
