Willie Nelson, There'll Be No Teardrops Tonight

I'll pretend I'm free from sorrow and I make believe that wrong is right Your wedding day will be tomorrow but there ain't gonna be no teardrops tonight And I'll believe that you still love me when you wear your veil of white But if you think that you're above me there ain't gonna be no teardrops tonight Why oh why should you desert me are you doing this for spite And if you only wanna hurt me there ain't gonna be no teardrops tonight ( quitar )

Shame on shame for what you're doing are you doing this for spite You don't care whose life you ruin but there ain't gonna be no teardrops tonight And there'll be no teardrops tonight
