Willie Nelson, You Decide

YOU DECIDE WRITER BETH NIELSEN CHAPMAN

You decide What you need Then you let me know I'll be waiting here until you call Take your time Till you find Which way your heart must go And when you decide Let me know Don't you worry if you see me cry I would rather hear you say goodbye Than to be the one you're seeing, love If I'm not the one that you're dreaming of You decide What you want I'll be waiting here You already know how much I care You decide And we'll just go from there
