

Winger, Whos The One

I'm out the back door just before midnight
I push the pedal to the floor, I run away
She says it's only in my head but my heart is screamin'
Hey you! What you're tryin' to prove
I won't play your game and I won't play your fool
Hey you! Best be makin' your move
Play your last hand, better understand, now it's
Time to surrender, 'cause my love don't live here anymore
Time to surrender, there's nothing left to fight for
There's nothin' left to save
Oh she cries so tough, it's too hard to let go
Of the lies inside the shadow of her tears and of her pain
And I denied when she was playin' the heartbreaker
Hey you! What are you tryin' to prove
I won't play your game and I won't play your fool
Hey you! Best be makin' your move
Play your last hand, better understand, now it's
Time to surrender, 'cause my love don't live here anymore
Time to surrender, it's not love you're makin', it's my heart you're breakin'
Your love is breakin' me down
(Solo)
Oh no, I can't take this again, night after night just pretending
Oh no, it's closer to the end, my body says go, but I know that now it's
Time to surrender, 'cause my love don't live here anymore
Time to surrender, there's nothing left to fight for
Time to surrender, 'cause my love don't live here anymore
Time to surrender, it's not love you're makin', it's my heart you're breakin'
Surrender
