

Winter, Blackhole

December approaches its dark depths
Decorate my fears
Alluring shadows of unrest
Drawing near

Pain and pleasure
Once captured the devil's(?) fear
The place of doom shall pierce my heart no more
Frost historic(?) winds blown by reddest(?) rage

Crawl

We rape the earth
Polluting minds
Enforce the laws
(something indecipherable)
Replace the forest
With concrete and steel
To the darkness
With my (a) shadow (something indecipherable)

Tears of anguish foreclose
My heart is condemned
Separation of immortality laws (lies) within

Storms caused by the dark lord
For eternity return no more

Witness the (something indecipherable) winds
Dreams now reality
The season (s) buried for ages
Released by false greed
