

Winterpills, I Bear Witness

I Bear Witness

i bear witness to all the ways they all depend on you
i bear witness to all the days they spend defending you
i bear witness to how the light i shed divides on you but will you bear witness will you bear witness to me?

how your dying choice betrayed your voice
i bear witness to how the wind wore down the hills of you
i bear witness to all the shapes that grow inside of you
but will you bear witness

all of this is just a dream you are trying to remember. all your bliss and pain are listed in the dying of an ember

ahhhh
will your secrets remain bright and true
ahhhh
will your secrets remain bright and true ahhh

and will you bear witness?
