Wired All Wrong, The End Of All Things

Count your stars in the sky
Cross my heart, hope to die
In the beginning of what we knew
What was true

And the girl was dancing
Floating through the air
Romancing
Floating away, floating away

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Crawled into my skin and sunk in
You left me completely broken
Waking up so welcome to the end
The end, end of all things

Why can't we just keep our mouth shut? (x4)

Breathe me into your mouth
Mark my words and spit me out
In the end we are nude
We are nude

And the man was singing
Floating through the air
Voice ringing
Floating away, floating away

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Crawled into my skin and sunk in
You left me completely broken
Waking up so welcome to the end
The end, end of all things

Why can't we just keep our mouth shut? (x4)

Breathe me into your mouth
Cross my heart

YEAH!
Crawled into my skin and sunk in
You've left me completely broken
Waking up so welcome to the end
The end, end of all things

Waking up so welcome to the end of all things (x4)
