

With Broken Wings, Tonight Is The Night My Heart

rip my eyes out
this curse has stolen my home don't doubt the world
for your own actions
will determine when I will kill you

jump off this cliff
it's safer at the bottom the depths of my mind are pitch black you can't breathe
you can't think

help...

the only person that can console me is buried at the bottom of the ground I feel catching up inside me I think tonight is the night that my heart stops...
