

Within Temptation, Cold

Skin so cold
I knew you'd go away and now I put you down to lay nothing to feel for you this was our last dance Closer and closer, it's time to surrender to the desire that you cannot mention don't try to breathe don't try to run away But I'm reaching for the sky (going to fly) won't you please stay With a smile I watch you go you'll never know I didn't cry with a smile I saw you die
No more fear they said you were so weak
and now I put you down to lay
this was our last chance
