

Without A Cross, (Watching My Dreams) Float Away

Watching the birds fly
Watching the sky so high
Watching my dreams float away
Watching the grass grow
Watching the water flow
Watching my dreams float away

Lost in my head to bleed
Lost in myself to believe
Lost in everything I thought exists
Lost in my sin to bleed
Lost all faith to believe
Lost in a world I thought exists

Watching the times change
Watching myself deranged
Watching my dreams float away
Watching this moment
Watching it to control it
Watching my dreams float away
