

Wiz Khalifa, 1000 Women feat. THEY

I can't explain the way that I feel for you
Don't know how you can see through all the things
How I decide everything we go through
No matter what I say, it's you
It's only you
Okay (You), okay (You, oh baby)
It's only you, uh
It's you, it's you, it's you (Talk to 'em)

Used that to think all that I wanted was a thousand women
'Til I had a thousand women, now, I can't remember
All 'em goin' back and forth, having competition
Not really tryna pay it forward with the life I'm living
Grew up, young pretty boy, having all the bitches
Now I'm a lil' bit older, I see things different
Used to think all that I wanted was a thousand women
Now I feel more mature, all I think about is children
Runnin' 'round my backyard while I'm smokin' out and chillin'
Teach 'em how to run the business, give 'em all Black privilege
To get that done, I don't need a thousand women
I only need one real one

I can't explain the way that I feel for you
Don't know how you can see through all the things
How I decide everything we go through
No matter what I say, it's you
It's only you
Okay (You), okay (You, oh baby)
It's only you, uh
It's you, it's you, it's you (Talk to 'em)

Gotta treat yourself more delicate and be more respectful
Try to use more empathy, think about what karma gets you
Don't take advantage, even if they let you
Live in the moment, treat it like it's special
Gotta keep your circle clear, ride with the ones who protect you
You ain't on the right path? Need someone who gon' correct you
Heal your mind and soul, help refresh you
Need to talk? Be someone you confess to Line your actions up with your intentions
Know your boundaries, enforce your limits
When you lie, the only person you kill is
The person standing in the mirror

I can't explain the way that I feel for you
Don't know how you can see through all the things
How I decide everything we go through
No matter what I say, it's you
It's only you
Okay (You), okay (You, oh baby)
It's only you, uh
It's you, it's you, it's you (Talk to 'em)

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Everything is gonna be alright (Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
Everything is gonna be alright (Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
Everything is gonna be alright (Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
Everything is gonna be alright (Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
