You ain't got facts, You only be assuming
Don't fuck with your friends, Don't like how you're moving
You say that you love me, well you gotta prove it
Show me you're loyal, Don't make me look stupid
You get the privilege, Hope you don't abuse it
You can just tell me the truth
You got you're own shit, you don't trip, Baby
You used to run up but now you ain't stuck up

Now it ain't how it supposed to be
Ain't how it supposed to be (Ain't how it supposed to be)
I thought you would be there for me
Every night, Every night (Every night)
I thought you would be there for me
Now it ain't how it supposed to be
