

Wiz Khalifa, Real Estate

Ugh

Ya'll already know what it is man

If they wanna know my name, they look up and see the gang

Ugh, its not a problem, we spending change

Got the pedal to the medal when I pull up out the garage

Ain't feelin 'em at all, these niggas a mirage

Handling my biz like a full body massage, hands on

Niggas gon hate, hoes wanna menage

Cops fuck wit me hopin to get a charge

Hoes leaving their man, fucking us cause our cars

If its one thing I know, its smoking and living large

Got me speedin down the interstate

See what I'm eatin, wanna piece up off my dinner plate

Hey she fucking me cause how I win a race

Plus I ain't cheap, I roll the reefer counting bigger cake

Wait I'm talkin fast car, big estate

Money come in cash plus in the bank

Nigga don't believe me, throw it in your face

Bitch I'm in the building like real estate

They say I'm still the same

You know it ain't a thang

Besides the zip code, ain't a damn thang changed

I'm gettin money, keep the champaigne coming

Might crack a smile but ain't a damn thang funny, no, uh uh

I'm straight, when you gettin money muthafukas gonna hate

Find the baddest bitch and get her number

I dont even call her (call her, call her)

Feel like a million dollars

When they make it

They should put my face up on a million dollar bill

Dollar bill, dollar bill

Cause thats how I feel yup

Cause thats how I feel yup

Cause thats how I feel yup

Cause thats how I feel yup

When they make it

They should put my face up on a million dollar bill

Dollar bill, dollar bill

Cause thats how I feel yup

Cause thats how I feel yup

Cause thats how I feel yup

Cause thats how I feel yup

Hey

Ballin's not a hobby, its my occupation

Hoes on my dick, thats my confirmation

Couple stars with me, thats a constellation

Jacksons, Grants, Benjis, thats my conversation

Touch the pedal once, it look like I'm racing

Eyes Chinese, smoke like I'm Jamaican

V.I.P rollin' doobies up and facing

12 bottles of Rose, I'm on some gang shit

Gettin all the shit, cake crumbling

Ain't nothin, told them lil niggas I take from 'em

Laughing my all the way to the bank

Tried to talk but they can't

They just stand ther,e when they starin

Hatin, mumblin

What you make a year, I guarantee I spend it clubbin

Started kinda hot, now its safe to say we bubblin

400 on a zip, blow it all day

Another city, state, another mill to make

They say I'm still the same
