

Wolfstone, Till I Sleep

(Ivan Drever)

There's not really a story to this one, however, if you like it, it's for you!

I'll walk this way until I sleep

I'll ride this road until I die

I'd take you with me if you'd come

It's keeping me alive

I'd talk to those who'd put me down

I'd listen without prejudice

The only thing I ever owned

Was living deep inside

Chorus:

I'll ride this horse into the wind

I'll take you with me when I go

My song is precious can't you see

I'll sing it till I sleep

I'll fly with wings that soar above

The land that lies beneath me

The only thing I've ever owned

Was living deep inside

I'd walk through hills and glens for those

Who mean the world to me and I

Would rather see you stay than go

But now we must decide

I'll ride the surf on board this ship

That takes me o'er the foaming sea

Unites me with my family

And those that I'd caress

Chorus

So till I sleep, I'll carry on

So till I die, I'll run along

These lines I drew myself have gone

You know it's only right

And when my senses have all gone

And when myself I am alone

I'll count my blessings one by one

And then I'll say good night

Chorus
