

Wonder Stuff, The, Golden Green

"She's Golden but she's green
And all the things that i have seen
And all the items that i'm hoarding up the back stairs Give 'em to me, give 'em now!
shut it up you silly cow how could you say i'd even think that, how?

These words are not my own
they only come when i'm alone
She is loved and she is welcome in my home
These words are not my own
they only come when i'm alone
She is loved and she is welcome in my home

She's taken all my vitamins Used up my lighter fuel i'm sure she stole all of my pencil lead in school Don't flap i'll give it back But woman its not the lack of my possessions
That is making me feel cruel

These words are not my own
they only come when i'm alone
She is loved and she is welcome in my home
These words are not my own
they only come when i'm alone
She is loved and she is welcome in my home

And if she loves me
she'll say that she loves me
Lies will shine in her eyes
And if she loves me
she'll say that she loves me
Even lies will shine in her eyes

These words are not my own
they only come when i'm alone
She is loved and she is welcome in my home
These words are not my own
they only come when i'm alone
She is loved and she is welcome in my home

These words are not my own
they only come when i'm alone
She is loved and she is welcome in my home"
