

Wondermints, Fleur-De-Lis

(N. Walusko)

Came the day I saw her, walking on the water,
And I was sinking in the sand.
And I thought I caught her,
But she was a little out of hand.
She's in a citadel that she built on her own.
She let her hair down for me.
Wish I'd keep her only locked away just for me,
But she's already doing time.
She's a concrete flower,
Squeezing in the hour 'til you're gone.
You're in a citadel that you built on your own.
Just let your hair down for me.
Could be a million reasons,
But you found just one - just one.

Fleur-de-lis Frozen lily
Silent sands are pouring, patiently ignoring
The minutes sliding into years
From the time I lost her,
Through the door of summer where she remains...
Forever out there
Fleur-de-lis Frozen lily
Forever out there
Fleur-de-lis Frozen lily
Fleur-de-lis
Forever out there
