

Wonderwall, Who Am I?

Who am I?
Dark lonely nights,
dark lonely days
I've never felt safe or owned anything
I had no right to had no right to talk
had no right to be myself Woke up tonight something was different I saw a light in the sky
I'd never seen before
somethings calling me
up to the sky
somethings calling me
up to the sky
Refrain:
Who am I
that you know my name?
Who am I? Ba-ba-da-da
Like a candle burns down time
time goes by Hearts desire fills the air
fills the sky
Face in the mirror
mom and dad in my shadow Golden lights tells me that I have the right to be myself
Refrain:
Who am I
that you know my name?
Who am I? (Ba-ba-da-da)
Dark lonely nights
dark lonely days
Time goes by
like a candle burns down Golden light its all right to be myself
Who am I?
Refrain:
Who am I
that you know my name?
Who am I? (Ba-ba-da-da)
