

Woodkid, Never Let You Down (ft. Lykke Li)

Will you come along cause I'm about to leave this town
In my eyes, a waterfall, all I can hear, a siren call
Could you be waiting by the shore, oh I could drown without you
Will be holding out the line when I fall?

I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down

Have your heart torn apart, feel your love float astray
Do you remember all the sounds, when I found you by the lake
And how the water seemed to call your name

I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down

Baby I would find you
Baby I could hear your voice
Baby I can feel your heart
Baby I will find you
Just wait a little longer
Baby I can hear you call
I won't ever let you down

I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
I'll never Let You Down
