

Woody Guthrie, More Pretty Girls Than One

There's more pretty girls than one more pretty girls than one every town I ramble 'round
more pretty girls than one

Look down that railroad line see the train roll by train rolls by with the woman I Love and I Hung my head and cried

Look out across that sea see the breakers well how many a love is washed away no human tongue can tell