LOOKING FOR YESTERDAY

Woody Herman

Looking for yesterday

Most any day I spent with you,
One yesterday when I still had a laugh or two,

One dance to our fav'rite tune,

Then to our fav'rite lane,

Who cares if there is no moon

Or we're drenched with rain.

Looking for yesterday

Before you wrapped the sun in clouds,

One yesterday before I hid away in crowds

My heart lives in misery,

Always a stone in its shoe

Looking for yesterday and you
