

Wu-Tang Clan, Punishment

[Intro:]

Wu-Tang

Holocaust punishment

Yo, yo, yo, yo

Yo, yo, yo, yo, yo, yo, yo, yo, yo

[Verse 1:]

From the hills of the Pacific

I bring fury and anger

Stabbing devils in their chest with a rusty ship anchor

Blood and sand we command and conquer

Wasted land,

Then expand the regions undiscovered by modern man

Body counts increase by thousands by the hour

The sniper on reserve blastin' hot from the water tower

Absorb'n' energy from the sun MC's run

My brain burst like to blow chunks outta you lungs

Blood on the pavement

Crews gaze in amazement

I was doing that to niggaz who test me on the slave ship

We sell tapes and stage jail breaks for past cell mates

Murder you at hell's gate daring bitches to yell rape

And pale face gesticulates hollow points I swallow joints

With romantic charisma that'll make your momma moist

My voice ensemble of bullets rip through your squadron

Circulate the planets move back you better dodge 'em

Or get opened up like a margin

Buddah sargeant,

Christ I should've warned you I never missed a target

The living weapon war machine by buried king

Relentless remorse is guiltless and unclean

Also the sources supreme of my team

Black Knight brigade peels caps like tangerine

Holocaustic, hypnotic, psychotic, sub-atomic, psychopathic, hyperactive, unattractive

[Chorus]

We bring nothing but punishment

Like nice be runnin' shit

have 'em runnin' quick

Uppercuts is what we coming with

Fuck the government

I grab the mic, that's when the thunder hit

Never love a bitch

Rhymes echo throughout the dungeon pits

[REPEAT]

[Verse 2:]

Something from my culture

I stay to harmony

The way of life that best suits me

I sincerely love Allah's mathematics

Freedom and raw The Abbott

I rest within the square

Which is 4 times 90 why niggaz trues dare

The dominant intelligence

99 elements we're offspring celibate

Without knowledge life's irrelevant

I wrote the benevolent (Wu-Tang eminent)

[Verse 3:]

I bring lyrics to existence

When I speak these powerful words

The priest of pandemonium the wargod has emerged

Above sea-level that's when thunder rolls and lightning strike down

Atrocity lay that poor ass and rain it for you compound

Chaotically the Black Knights we move erotically

Lyrical perform labotomy on your biology a prodigy
A philosophy and theology my ideology's to break down
MC's microscopically
The ghetto tropically gettin' more hectic by the second
Ghetto warfare straight bullets hit off the window sectors
And hit kids cause niggaz spit wigs with no precautions
The war I raise down from their grave to haunt your conscious
With bloody screams nightmares and bloody dreams
Of niggaz haunting you through dark alleyways
Through missing smoke screen
Have you tweaking like a crack fiend
On high bean like Christine
The lords rain supreme
[Chorus]
[Verse 4:]
I'm original mallot
With metaphor dominant intelligence
I give a nigga a hardcore detention with his birthstar invention
I was mentioned I be creeping with the intention
To break free from this evil mad society
Don't lie to me
I'm dope, I scope stuff I like to telescope
To provoke from being choked
Cause my ability is soul lying
And let me open up your insides
And man hide,
Not from confusion with this high energy I'm using Static got you lighting and moving
Through the abyss where snakes hiss
And many men get pissed for following false elements
For following false elements
[Chorus]
[repeat last line 2x]
