Wumpscut, In The Peace Of Night

Prosecuted by pain driven by the urge for life In darkness we hide out there in the cold In darkness defiled out there from the mould

Wail is all around us Our courage's running lower There's only one escape now To kill all our children

Kill them
Oh lord kill them

Kill all our children And do it here right now Kill all our children And help us overcome

With tears in our eyes we make sacrifice