

Wynn Stewart, Don't Lay Your Head On My Shoulder

Don't lay your head on my shoulder
Cause I've been lonely too long
And there's a part missing from my heart
And if you won't let me how can I be strong

Don't get so close I might kiss you
A flame would be easy to start
And don't lay your head on my shoulder
Cause it's too close to my heart
(steel)
Oh don't get so close I might kiss you...
Cause it's too close to my heart
