EYES AS BIG AS DALLAS

Writer Gary McCray

She came on as strong as a south Texas wind
She was nobody's lover, just everybody's friend
She had everything that any man could need
I found here in Laredo, she's like a Texas Tornado
And she had eyes as big as Dallas for me
They said trying to love her is like taming the wind
But I knew she wasn't wild, she just never gave in
She just wanted to live and remain free
I met her in Laredo, she's like a Texas tornado
and she had eyes as big as Dallas for me
They said trying to love her is like taming the wind
But I knew she wasn't wild, she just never gave in
She just wanted to live and remain free
I found her in Laredo, she's like a Texas tornado and she's got eyes as big as Dallas for me
She's got eyes as big as Dallas for me
