Darling please let me be your stepping stone
You told me once just how my kisses thrilled you
Since that time there'd been many lips you've known
When you stepped out on him to find a new love
Darling please don't miss your stepping stone
I'll be your stepping stone
The one you're stepping on from him to him
You'll need true love some day I'll be a step away
So darling please don't forget your stepping stone
Let me be your stepping stone...
Oh darling please let me be your stepping stone
