MY OWN LITTLE WORLD

Writers Bob Morris and Larry Farmer

Copyright 1968

Some folks are happy others are sad
Some folks are good others are bad
But they can live their lives just anyway they choose
As long as I can live in my own little world with you
Some folks want fortune others want fame
Some folks want big cars others diamond rings
But they can have their fortunes and all their diamonds too
As long as I can live in my own little world with you
I wouldn't trade one moment of happiness with you
For all their gold and all their silver too
Some call me foolish but I'm nobody's fool
Cause I'm happy here in my own little world with you
Cause I'm happy here in my own little world with you
