

Wynn Stewart, Today I Started Loving You Again

Today I started loving you again
And I'm right back where I've really always been
I got over you just long enough to let my heartaches mend
Then today I started loving you again

What a fool I was to think I might get by
With only these few million tears to cry
I might have known the day was soon to come
And that crying time for me has only begun

Because today I started loving you again...
Yes today I started loving you again
