TOO MANY TEARDROPS TOO LATE

Writer Dave Burgess

You're too many teardrops too late too many teardrops too late
If you hadn't been untrue then I'd still be a loving you
But you're too many teardrops too late
I got your letter yesterday read every word you had to say
But I heard them all before they don't fool me anymore
And you're too many teardrops too late
You're too many teardrops...
My heart don't know what to do I still have this feeling for you
If I took you back again then you'd hurt me in the end
And you're too many teardrops too late
You're too many teardrops...
