

Wynn Stewart, When We Had Nothing

WHEN WE HAD NOTHING

Writer Wynn Stewart

Copyright 1970

When we had nothing only each other
We were so happy just being together
We dreamed of good fortune that would soon come our way
Though they were just dreams together we stayed
And then one day the long hours of dreaming came true
All of the hard work and disappointments were through
And I gave you everything but then I lost you
Yes once we had nothing but when we had nothing
We really had something we had me and you
Oh I wish we had nothing cause when we had nothing
We really had something we had me and you