

X-PERIENCE, His life

Woke up in the morning and it made him upset all his cares deep inside living nightmares in his head thistles and thorn on my head confidence as a shame this lifes fear and despair no more than disasters no more than fales my dear he hang around felt sad couldnt climb the wall alone dreamed of fellow man and help but he know they were gone he realize the things surrounding his mind are useless in fall of life all the things he couldnt find try to cover, try to hide he try to cover, he try to hide
